To Whom It May Concern,

Joe McClane is a core planning team member of the Arch-Diocesan "Men's Day of Prayer" conference for the Diocese of Galveston-Houston. Joe has spoken and emceed at this event on several occasions, sharing his testimony of conversion to the Catholic Church, and how God saved him from decades of a pornography addiction—with great response from the men. Additionally, I have also worked with Joe in his capacity as Director of Fullness of Truth Catholic Evangelization Ministries and as well, in other partner projects between Fullness of Truth and the Catholic Charismatic Center. I enjoy working with Joe and look forward to doing so again in the future.

Joe McClane is faithful to this Diocese, the Pope and the Magistrium of the Catholic Church in his presentations as a lay evangelist. I would recommend Joe to other groups without hesitation.

Sincerely,

Rev. Michael Scherrey
Director of the Catholic Charismatic Center
